OKBFAA REPRESENTS YOUR INTERESTS

OKBFAA works closely with the OK Department of Labor and the Alarm Locksmith & Fire Sprinkler Committee, as well as the Construction Industry Council during legislative session to ensure that occupational licensing requirements stay in place and are reasonable and fair. OKBFAA continuously represents and closely monitors and protects the industry's interests at the state level while working with the National Electronic Security Alliance (NESA) at the federal level.

OKBFAA HELPS YOU STAND OUT FROM THE REST

As a member of OKBFAA, you receive a member website decal and a free company listing on OKBFAA's website for consumer information. Many consumers prefer a company that belongs to an association with a strong Code of Ethics.

GIVES YOU A NATIONAL VOICE

As a member of OKBFAA, you automatically become a member of NESA (National Electronic Security Alliance) that monitors federal legislation and regulations while collaborating with other states to enhance and protect our members.

OKBFAA MEMBERS SAVE ON SERVICES

Members receive discounts on licensing training classes, educational programs and webinars, networking opportunities and events.

OKBFAA GIVES YOU THE POWER OF ASSOCIATION

OKBFAA members network at the annual Business Workshop and Expo and other events throughout the year. Being able to interact with other professionals who do what you do, are faced with the same challenges, can share valuable information to help you and your business, and in return you can do the same. This is the Power of Association.
